Reuse, Rebuy! Building Value Cincinnati, A non-profit social enterprise that salvages reusable materials for sale to the public, has saved over 14 million pounds of material from area landfills. Founded by Easter Seals, the organization has a retail outlet and sells reused construction materials as well as “green” products built by Easter Seals WRC Building Ability Program. They also provide deconstruction services and offer job training to displaced workers. Don't miss a tour of Building Value's Cincinnati facility while enjoying an evening of valuable networking and learning.

The Evening will include:

- Rumpke's presentation on the benefits of recycling
- Tours of this unique facility
- Delicious food and refreshments
- Door prizes and a split the pot raffle
